

MANA 7392: Managerial Issues (restricted to ACCT students)

Goals for MANA 7392:

1. Understand the importance and impact of organizational culture on the success of an organization and one's personal fit in the organization.
2. Learn how to collaborate successfully to achieve organizational and personal goals, with a focus on self awareness related to personal choices for influencing others.
3. Increase self awareness related to personal motivation, with a focus on need for achievement, need for affiliation, and need for power, and their impact on personal success.
4. Understand the importance of mentoring and learn how to develop successful mentor/protégé relationships.
5. Understand the skills necessary to be successful when working globally and increase awareness of the many options for international career paths.