Floyd C. Wilson was the chairman and chief executive officer of 3TEC Energy Corporation from August 1999 until its merger with Plains Exploration & Production Company in June 2003. Mr. Wilson also founded Hugoton Energy Corporation in 1987, and served as its chairman, president and chief executive officer. In 1994, Hugoton completed an initial public offering and was merged into Chesapeake Energy Corporation in 1998. He began his career in the energy business in Houston in 1970 as a completion engineer. Headquartered in Houston, TX, Petrohawk is one of the ten largest U.S. E&P companies with a focus on shale gas exploration and development.

DISTINGUISHED Leaders Series

ABOUT THE DISTINGUISHED LEADERS SERIES – Launched in fall 2002 with Charles T. “Ted” Bauer, founder and retired chairman of AIM Management Group, the Distinguished Leaders Series at the C. T. Bauer College of Business provides students, alumni and faculty exposure to business and community leaders, bridging academic teachings on leadership and ethics with the Real World of Business. The series is an extension of the annual fall Leadership and Ethics Week. The overall goal of the Distinguished Leaders Series is to develop Bauer College students into the effective, conscientious business leaders of tomorrow.
