COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON

SHAPING THE FUTURE

At the C. T. Bauer College of Business, we're committed to helping our students succeed.

Some of the world's top business leaders support that mission through membership in the Bauer College Board. This advisory board includes chairmen, CEO and presidents of companies across all sectors. Some members are Bauer College alumni, and others simply recognize the impact that the college has on the business community. The board works to strengthen the relationship between the college and industry by providing input on strategy, thought leadership, student engagement and curricular relevance.

The Bauer College Board isn't just a roster of c-level leaders. It's a passionate, active group of executives and entrepreneurs working to arm Bauer College students with the resources and support for a successful future.

C. T. Bauer College of Business is an AACSB accredited business school.

The University of Houston is an EEO/AA institution.
