

OUR CITY, OUR COLLEGE

Expanding City Limits

At the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston, we're fueling the city's growing workforce beyond the inner loop.

The Bauer Global Energy Executive MBA (GEMBA) at The Woodlands is designed to prepare leaders to thrive in the rapidly growing, and ever-changing, energy industry. We expose students to high-level problem-solving and managerial skills needed to effectively provide leadership to their organizations through the knowledge of Bauer's renowned faculty.

Our evolving curriculum and our industry experienced faculty provide the skills to form current and future leaders right in our own backyard.

We are Bauer, and we are your business connection.

C. T. Bauer College of Business is an AACSB accredited business school.

The University of Houston is an EEO/AA institution.
