

OUR CITY, OUR COLLEGE

Setting the Bar

At the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston, we are training graduates who make economic impact.

This year, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board recognized Bauer's Wolff Center for Entrepreneurship for cultivating marketable skills in students. The Wolff Center is a leading program, both on campus and across the nation, with eight consecutive years ranking in the top three on The Princeton Review's Top 25 Undergraduate Schools for Entrepreneurs list published annually in Entrepreneur magazine. And this year, Bauer entrepreneurship students netted more than $100,000 in a final project, which will be invested back into the program.

Our programs are designed to prepare graduates not only to get jobs, but to create them. We are Bauer, and we are your business connection.

C. T. Bauer College of Business is an AACSB accredited business school.

The University of Houston is an EEO/AA institution.
