COURSE OBJECTIVE

The main purpose of this course is to introduce students to the important issues of doing business abroad, focusing on Asia. We will look at all aspects of business in Asia, including national culture, business culture, firm strategy and management. We will look at how business in Asia differs from business in the United States, and what managers in multi-national and other organizations should know when doing business with Asia. Students will experience the Asian culture first hand with a trip to Singapore, a major financial and multinational hub in Asia.

REASONABLE ACADEMIC ADJUSTMENTS/AUXILIARY AIDS

The University of Houston complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, pertaining to the provision of reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids for disabled students. In accordance with Section 504 and ADA guidelines, UH strives to provide reasonable academic adjustments/auxiliary aids to students who request and require them. If you believe that you have a disability requiring an academic adjustments/auxiliary aid, please contact the Justin Dart Jr. Student Accessibility Center (formerly the Justin Dart, Jr. Center for Students with Disabilities

EXCUSED ABSENCE POLICY

Regular class attendance, participation, and engagement in coursework are important contributors to student success. Absences may be excused as provided in the University of Houston Graduate Excused Absence Policy for reasons including: medical illness of student or close relative, death of a close family member, legal or government proceeding that a student is obligated to attend, recognized professional and educational activities where the student is presenting, and University-sponsored activity or athletic competition. Additional policies address absences related to military service, religious holy days, pregnancy and related conditions, and disability.

ACADEMIC HONESTY POLICY

The Bauer College of Business is proud of the high quality of our students and our academic programs. We recognize the importance of academic honesty in maintaining our high standards. In the rare situation where there may be a breach of academic honesty, we would appreciate your assistance in bringing the situation to our attention. We will, of course, take appropriate action in all cases. If you have questions about the Academic Honesty Policy, it is included in the Student Handbook. The staff of the Dean of Students Office are also available to answer questions.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

The Bauer College of Business has a policy that requires all of its instructors to be evaluated by their students. The results of these evaluations are important to provide feedback to instructors on how their performance can be improved. In addition, these evaluations are carefully considered in promotion, salary adjustment, and other important decisions. We openly encourage students to provide feedback to the instructors and the Bauer College of Business through the evaluation process.

PARTICIPATION

The Singapore trip is a vital part of this course. Students are expected to positively represent the University of Houston, act professionally, abide all the laws of the country being visited, participate in all excursions and seminars (unless they are deemed optional), and to attend all classes. Violating the Bauer Code, delaying the group, being disruptive, being inattentive, drinking alcohol during program activities, missing activities, and bringing along guests are examples of behaviors that will negatively affect the contribution grade. Students' behaviors on the trip counts 50 points. Canvas discussion contribution counts 15 points. The Canvas discussion will be based on the week's readings as specified in the schedule below. Canvas discussion contribution points will be based on the quality and quantity of each student's postings, as well as the quantity of postings each student has read. High quality postings will be more than just opinions; they will include references and links to material that supports the opinions. Students are expected to contribute two quality posts per week, for a minimum total of 8 quality posts. To get full credit, students are expected to read at least 90% of the posts.

PRE-TRIP QUESTIONS

During orientation, students will be given the name of three – four companies we will be visiting in Singapore. Each student should research these companies and provide me with 1) a one paragraph summary of the company; and 2) three questions that would be appropriate to ask a company representative. The questions should show considerable thought, a basic knowledge of the company, and be course related. That is, the questions should be related to some aspect of doing business in Asia, not just how that company does business in general. Questions that can be answered in one word (or a short sentence), that are not course related, and questions that might be embarrassing to company employees are not appropriate. In such cases, students may be asked to submit new questions so that they can still get full credit for the next assignment (post-trip answers). These 3 paragraphs and 9 questions are due by 11:59 pm, Mar 3rd and should be turned in via Canvas assignments. The questions are worth 10 points, with 1 point off for every day late.

POST-TRIP ANSWERS

Students should seek the answers to their questions during our Singapore trip. The questions should be thoroughly answered. If you can not find the answer to your specific questions from company representatives, research the issue and answer it for Singaporean companies in general. The nine questions and their answers in word format should be turned in on Canvas (assignments) by 11:59 pm, March 24. The answers are worth 10 points.

REFLECTION PAPER

This paper is meant to be the final integrating component of your experience on this trip. It should be 2-3 pages in length, single line spacing, normal size font (no larger than 12 point). It consists of two parts: 1. Your own thoughtful reflection on the trip, your experience and how it might connect to your future endeavors, personal or professional; these trips are part of what we call experiential learning – you derive knowledge and insights from participation in the trip itself. At your stage of academic career, as a graduate student, we expect more insight in your paper than a bulleted list of things that you saw. 2. What Singapore did you see, what did you expect? In terms of the substantive portion of the course, was there something that you expected; something you missed? What did you learn that was new? Are there any lessons or learnings for US firms or firms in specific industries? The paper should be turned in via Canvas' assignment function and will be submitted to turnitin.com to be analyzed for plagiarism. (Go to http://www.turnitin.com/research_site/e_home.html to learn more about plagiarism and how to avoid it.) The paper is worth 15 points and is due March 27th, with 1.5 points off for every day late.
