It’s all here for you! Apply for UH Bauer College’s Summer Business Institute and explore the real world of business in Houston!

Who is eligible?
You must be a high school student graduating between May 2011 and May 2012 (current sophomores and juniors). An application is required (see below). Space is limited: Twenty-five students will be selected for the Institute through a competitive selection process.

When is the Institute?
The 3-day camp is scheduled for Tuesday-Thursday, July 13-15, 2010.

Where is the Institute?
The Summer Business Institute will be held at the UH C.T. Bauer College of Business, 10 minutes from downtown Houston on the UH-Main campus, as well as multiple locations throughout the Houston area.

How much does it cost?
The cost is $100 per student, which includes daily breakfast and lunch, as well as bus transportation for all off-campus activities. (NOTE: If selected, Institute attendees must provide their own transportation to and from UH daily.) Scholarships are available for selected students who are on a high school free-lunch or reduced-cost lunch program.

When and how do I apply?
Online applications are available now and will be accepted through May 1, 2010. There is no fee required to apply for the Institute. The Institute is limited to 25 students, so take time to fill out your application carefully!
