

Eric Gann, FDA Special Agent

Eric Gann is a Special Agent with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration Office of Criminal Investigations (FDA-OCI) in Houston, TX. Agent Gann is responsible for conducting criminal investigations pertaining to violations of the Food Drug and Cosmetic Act. The investigations promote the integrity of the food and drug development process and supply chain to ensure the health and welfare of consumers.

Prior to Agent Gann's tenure with the FDA-OCI, Agent Gann was a Senior Special Agent with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Investigations and its predecessor the U.S. Customs Service's Office of Investigations for approximately 14 years. Agent Gann conducted complex multi-national money laundering and drug smuggling investigations. Agent Gann was also a Houston Police Officer for 7 years and a graduate of Sam Houston State University.