

MANA 6A32: Organizational Behavior and Management

Cr. 1.5. (1.5-0). Prerequisites: graduate standing. Introduction to organizational behavior with a focus on leadership, motivation, group dynamics, and organizational change.

Goals for MANA 6A32:

- a. Build a conceptual foundation for advanced MBA electives on specialized topics such as leadership development and change management.
- b. Students will develop a basic understanding of the core components of behavior in organizations including:
 1. Individual differences and their importance for management
 2. Individual and group decision making
 3. Motivation
 4. Leadership
 5. Team management
 6. Power and influence
 7. Organizational change processes