Bauer College of Business
Melcher Hall, Room 150

Bruce A. Williamson has more than 20 years of experience in energy and finance with four Fortune 500 companies. The positions he has held include:

- Vice president of finance for PanEnergy
- Overall transaction manager and lead PanEnergy negotiator for the $7.7 billion merger with Duke
- Senior vice president of business development and risk management, following the Duke Power and PanEnergy Corporation merger
- President and chief executive officer of Duke Energy International
- President and chief executive officer of Duke Energy Global Markets

Before joining PanEnergy, Williamson held positions of increasing responsibility at Royal Dutch/Shell Group, advancing over a 14-year period to assistant treasurer of Shell Oil Company. Williamson earned a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Montana and an MBA from the University of Houston. He is active with the University of Houston, serving as a Dean's Advisory Board member for the Bauer College of Business and was honored recently with an appointment to the Chancellor's National Advisory Council. Williamson has also served on the boards of Houston 2012 and the Children's Museum of Houston.

DISTINGUISHED Leaders Series

Launched in fall 2002 with Mr. C.T. Bauer, founder and retired chairman of AIM Management Group, the Distinguished Leaders Series at the C. T. Bauer College of Business provides students, alumni and faculty exposure to business and community leaders, bridging academic teachings on leadership and ethics with the Real World of Business. The Series is an extension of the annual fall Leadership and Ethics Week. The overall goal of the Distinguished Leaders Series is to develop Bauer College students into the effective, conscientious business leaders of tomorrow.
