

Zohre Amet, an experienced Lean Transformation leader who has proven results in streamlining business and manufacturing processes, reducing wastes, increasing operation efficiencies and supply chain velocity. With over 10 years experience as chief trainer, project facilitator and coach in the United Technologies, she is passionate in deploying lean methodology across the organization, achieving operational excellence and empowering teams to be collaborative, engaged, and to take ownership in continuous improvement.

Her diverse multi-site and multi-industry experience spans across mainland China, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia in industrial equipment, aerospace machinery, aerospace repair and overhaul, security and infrastructure in building industry.

Areas of Expertise are:

Regional Lean Deployment and Self-Sufficiency Development Leader

Multi-Site Lean Transformation Manager

Continuous Improvement Culture Development Leader

Lean Six Sigma Program Manager

Supplier Lean Capability Development Manager