

OUR CITY, OUR COLLEGE

Built by Entrepreneurs

Only 14 cities in the United States have created more jobs than were lost in the recession. Six of those cities are in Texas, and Houston is leading the charge, not only because of its strength in the energy industry but also due to the entrepreneurial spirit innate to the city.

What better place to foster this spirit of entrepreneurship than in the city's leading business school, the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston?

Home to the Cyvia and Melvyn Wolff Center for Entrepreneurship, one of the nation's top undergraduate entrepreneurship programs since 2007, we're proud to be Houstonians. Proud to be entrepreneurs.
