Making Google Competition History

Two teams of MBA students from the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston are among the best online marketers, according to Google. The students were among the top three in the AdWords Social Impact category of the Google Online Marketing Challenge, making Bauer College one of only two schools in the world to have two team winners.

At Bauer, we provide cutting-edge curriculum to keep our students at the forefront of business.
We are Houston, and we are your business connection.
