

OUR CITY, OUR COLLEGE

Making a Difference

At the University of Houston C. T. Bauer College of Business, students aren't just challenged to get good grades. They're asked to make a difference.

When a professor challenged his Bauer MBA leadership development class to organize projects that would benefit someone, Raiya Al Salmi and Lara Machedehl decided to make an impact locally, raising funds for Teague Cox, a local nine-year-old boy diagnosed with brain cancer, who has undergone surgery and radiation treatments and is now cancer-free. Through the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Teague wishes to go deep sea fishing with his family in Hawaii. The Bauer MBA students organized a faculty vs. students kickball game on campus and encouraged donations so that Teague's wish could become a reality.

The culture at Bauer College, both in the classroom and outside, inspires students to make a difference and change lives. Our students are transforming themselves and others through volunteer efforts and business leadership. We are Houston, and we are your business connection.

C. T. Bauer College of Business is an AACSB accredited business school.

The University of Houston is an EEO/AA institution.
